Foreign Language Is Not Dead

by
Jane R. Covington

This year we have 108 students enrolled in Latin, and 82 students in Spanish. We have participated in many activities over the past years. In 1971, the Latin Club went on a trip to Natural Bridge to attend a state convention. They also went to Charlotesville to visit the home of Thomas Jefferson.

On March 30, 1972, ten Latin students and Miss O'Brien left for Rome, for ten days. They toured the city of Rome and learned about the way the ancient Romans used to live. They also visited Florence, and the Seaport of Ostia, one of the oldest towns in Rome.

On April 20, 1972, the Spanish, French, and Latin classes gave a foreign language program to the school. The Spanish and French classes presented skits. The Latin class showed a slide presentation of the classical tour.

On April 11, 1973, Mike Quinn left for a ten-day trip to Rome. He went with a group from Brookville and Danville.

The Spanish class presented a pageant entitled "O Holy Night." They sang Spanish Christmas carols to the Appomattox Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy. They also sang carols to different classes at ACHS.

On Nov. 21, 1974, the Latin class presented a Roman Fashion Show for the back-to-school-night program. They also entertained by singing several songs in Latin.

In 1975, the Latin Club visited the Museum of Fine Arts in Richmond. They also had a picnic in the park.

In 1976, the Latin Club toured Washington. We visited such places as the Capitol, Smithsonian, Washington Monument, Supreme Court, and the Library of Congress.

We have had such newspaps-Fre-Lat-Spa which was a combination of French, Latin, and Spanish. The names of our other newspapers are Latin II's News, Roman Gazette, and Foreign Chronicle.

Foreign Language Week was held May 17-21. On Wednesday morning the second year Latin class had a Roman wedding. After the wedding they played Klassroom Kwiz.

TEACHERS ARE HELPING themselves to refreshments at Foreign Language Week tea on Wednesday, May 19.

THESE STUDENTS HELPED clean-up after the tea.

That afternoon the Spanish and Latin classes presented their annual tea. The students wore costumes representing the style of their country. We invited the State Supervisor of Foreign Languages, but unfortunately she was not able to attend our tea. Attending the tea were Mr. Walton, school board members, faculty, and the parents. We received two very nice thank you notes from Mr. Walton and Mrs. Penn, telling us how much they enjoyed the tea.

As you can see from the many activities the students at ACHS are involved in, the Foreign Language Department is really alive.
